EXTREME POSITIONS, bpNichol's fourth published novel, uses the techniques of visual poetry to tell the extended tale of a ménage à trois. In a series of quick word stills the stilted violence unwinds as seen from the viewpoint of a terrified, distant, almost peripheral narrator/witness.

bpNichol was born in Vancouver in 1944 and now lives in Toronto. His previous novels are Two Novels (Coach House Press, 1968) & Journal (CHP 1978). He is also the author of two collections of short prose texts, Nights on Prose Mountain, (grOnk, 1969) & Craft Dinner (Aya Press, 1978), as well as numerous books of poetry including The Martyrology (Bk I & II, CHP 1972), Bk III & IV, CHP 1976), LOVE: A Book of Remembrances (Talonbooks, 1972) & ZYGAL (CHP 1981). His selected writings, AS ELECTED, appeared from Talonbooks in the winter of 1981.
