SCRAPTURES:
second
sequence

the three volumes of scriptures have not yet arrived) included the reproduction of an entirely new book.
In this second volume
we find some 200
word fragments to bpNichol

the first sequence of Scriptures (as yet unpublished) involved the restructuring of an already set base. in this second sequence i have used no set text but allowed the words & word fragments to guide me in the jump from page to page. the footnotes at the end are not intended as explanations but rather as extensions and amplifications. i have numbered those pages to which the footnotes apply.
